

Photography Volunteer

Marketing and communications is crucial for promoting the work and spreading the message of Veronica's Voice. It educates and generates concern for the issue of commercial sexual exploitation. It brings in donations, volunteers, sales, and partnerships. The Marketing and Communication team will work together to create a variety of compelling content as necessary. The photography volunteer will contribute to this content by providing high quality photos of Veronica's Voice events, a Just Cause products, and other photography requests. This photography will complement the social media, email, and event marketing of the organization, while also promoting the Veronica's Voice social enterprise and enriching the Veronica's Voice website.
